3-Part ULTIMATE HEART & CARDIO Program

PHASE 1

Powerful and time-tested herbal blend to support a healthy heart, cardiovascular system, and circulatory system.*

Helps support balanced and healthy blood pressure levels within normal ranges.* Hawthorne Berry has a long history as a natural plant to support heart health. This plant was praised for cardiovascular support by the Chinese and Greeks for thousands of years

Garlic and Niacin are both natural vasodilators.*

PHASE 2

Therapeutic doses of clinically studied AmealPeptide®, along with the other ingredients in this potent formula make this a heart and cardio support program like no other. Simply research the cardio benefits of AmealPeptide® online to see for yourself!

CoQ10 is ubiquitous in human tissues, although its level is variable. The level of CoQ10 is the highest in organs with high rates of metabolism such as the heart, kidneys, and liver (114, 66.5, and 54.9 g/g tissue respectively), where it functions as an energy transfer molecule.*

PHASE 3

A potent and well-balanced formula to support heart and cardiovascular health with well researched ingredients.*

Contains 500mg of a time-tested plant called Citrus Bergamot, containing the unique and well-researched phytochemicals, Brutieridin and Melitidin, shown to support heart and cardiovascular health.*

This product is not available for retail channels. Manufactured for sale in qualified Healthcare, professional clinics only.
